The Shoal Centre is pleased to welcome local professional wildlife artist, Richard Wong, back for another year of inspiring workshops. Learn new skills. Refresh current skills. Richard is pleased to offer an exciting “Spirit Raven” on Japanese art paper class (pictured here). Ravens hold universal spiritual and symbolic significance. Classes are structured for all levels, including beginners: relaxed, stress-free and fully supported. (Supplies: bring your own OR rent a paint kit directly from Richard in class for an extra $5.00).

Registration: Call Shoal (250) 391-5522

(Richard Wong is a professional wildlife artist/instructor with international credentials. His art is popular. His classes are fun.)
